

Profile of a Tamarac Music Graduate

The Tamarac community strives to develop music graduates who understand key terms, events, and concepts of music theory. The Music Department strives to develop:

People of good character who:

- ❖ Accept responsibility
- ❖ Demonstrate self-discipline
- ❖ Know how to set manageable goals
- ❖ Are willing to take risks
- ❖ Exercise proper audience etiquette

Active citizens who:

- ❖ Follow through with their commitments
- ❖ Are cooperative
- ❖ Contribute to group experiences

Musical thinkers who:

- ❖ Understand how to read, write, and interpret musical notation
- ❖ Understand the role of music in culture and community
- ❖ Are critical listeners
- ❖ Self evaluate

Appreciators of music who:

- ❖ Listen attentively to music of many different styles and historical periods
- ❖ Respect the music of other cultures
- ❖ Recognize the aesthetic qualities of music

Musicians who:

- ❖ Have experience in playing a variety of instruments
- ❖ Are able to sing alone and with others
- ❖ Are able to apply modern technology to music
- ❖ Express themselves through music

Adopted Spring 2009
Tamarac Music Department