

Profile of a Tamarac Social Studies Graduate

The Tamarac community strives to develop social studies graduates who understand key terms, events, and concepts of the social sciences. These graduates will:

Demonstrate responsibility and respect for themselves and others:

- ❖ Promote justice and tolerance
- ❖ Appreciate cultural diversity
- ❖ Serve their community
- ❖ Exercise environmental responsibility

Value the roles, rights and responsibilities of citizenship:

- ❖ Participate in the democratic process
- ❖ Understand various systems and principles of government
- ❖ Recognize important local, state, and national political figures and events
- ❖ Make informed decisions

Understand relationships in the social sciences:

- ❖ Use historical evidence to explain current events
- ❖ Identify and understand different perspectives of historical events
- ❖ Understand key economic concepts and systems

Communicate Effectively (listen, speak, read, and write):

- ❖ Locate, analyze, and evaluate relevant information
- ❖ Organize evidence to support a position
- ❖ Advocate for themselves and others

Adopted Spring 2009
Tamarac Social Studies Department